Great work: Lee presenting the Best Cadet Award to Khai Boon for his 1,000 hours of service to St John Ambulance Malaysia.

Rewarded for outstanding service

THE St John Ambulance Malaysia's (SJAM) Best Cadet Award went to 18-year-old Goh Khai Boon, who did a whopping 1,000 hours of community service over a period of five years.
The SMK Haji Zainul Abidin student was the only one in Penang to receive the award this year.
SJAM Penang Northeast Area Commander Lee Toong Chow said Khai Boon even did better than himself as he performed 500 hours of community service during his years as a cadet.

"He achieved an extraordinary feat as most cadets served only 100 or 200 hours in their four years of service.
"The award is a form of recognition for SJAM cadets who have dedicated their time and effort to provide services to the public," he added.
He said this after the 7th SJAM Cadet Day Award Ceremony in Grove Road.
More than 250 cadets attended the award ceremony last Sunday.
